Who is faster?

If there are other family members at home, you can invite them to join the game.

1 Draw different occupations, such as doctor(醫生), nurse(護士), firefighter(消防員), teacher(老師), police officer(警察), ambulance staff(救護員) and chef(廚師), etc. Write the Chinese names of the occupations under each drawing.

2 Choose a family member to be the leader. Leader has to say the name of an occupation, and others have to quickly point out the picture of that occupation.

↑ Increase the difficulty level when you all are familiar with the game!

3 Leader has to describe the occupation's characteristics or workplace instead of saying the name of the occupation (e.g. works with doctors). Others need to guess and point out the picture of that occupation (e.g. nurse).

Materials

Paper

Color pencils

Practice saying out the occupations in Chinese with your kid before the end of each round!
